GULAM MOHIYUDDIN MEHKRI, Esq., B.A., LL.B.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

SIR,

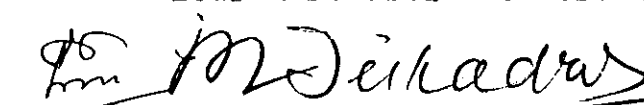

UNIFORM FOR RESCUE PARTY.

I have the honour to state that 7 Rescue parties have now been formed in Bangalore City, each party consisting of 1 officer, 1 leader and 8 men. It is intended to give 2 parties to each of the 3 A.R.P. Divisions and keep 1 party in reserve. It is also intended to train 2 more parties from among the Police Force, ⁱⁿ which case there will be 3 parties in reserve.

^{in case}
The personnel for 7 parties have been drawn from the A.R.P. Volunteers and from the Municipal Road Gangs. Rescue work requires training and practice. The persons have to appear for practice at least 4 days in the month and they have to be well drilled and disciplined. A uniform to these parties is a necessity. Many of them cannot afford to appear even in decent clothing. They have got to be provided with a decent uniform. As an experimental measure, I recommend that 2 parties may be provided with the uniform in blue drill, - ~~the~~ officers with a jacket and a pair of trousers and the men with a shirt and a pant. The cost of uniform per officer and per man is estimated at Rs.15/- and Rs.10/- respectively and the total cost Rs.210/-.

I request that this may kindly be sanctioned and the cost debited to the lumpsum grant for A.R.P.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE.
